EQUAL OPPORTUNITY ACT ECOA

The Federal Equal Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discrimination against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age (provided that the applicants has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), or because all or part of the applicants income is derived from any public assistance program or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.

The Federal Agency that administers compliance with the law concerning this creditor is the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, 600 California Street, PO Box 7948, San Francisco, CA 94120.

Income derived from alimony, child support or separate maintenance need not be revealed unless you choose such sources to be considered as a basis for repaying this obligation. Income from these sources, as well as other any other source , including part-time or temporary employment, will not be discounted by the lender because of your sex or marital status, however, the lender will consider carefully the stability of all income you disclose.
